The master suite is enormous, with a huge bathroom and hamam en-suite, crafted with the best quality, carefully chosen and rare materials. The walls are lined with closets, plus a dressing room with shelves for luxury bags and shoes.

The whole property has been fitted with the finest woods and marble and is situated within metres of the breaking waves and yachts of the marina below, yet quiet and very private.

There are 2 further bedroom suites, a laundry room and an office. The entire apartment is surrounded by a large wrap around terrace furnished with sun loungers, a dining area and even a small thriving organic garden. With the sea at your feet, fresh air and incredible views, aside from the finest luxury interiors, the health benefits of life in this property are real.

8 parking spaces and 2 cellars are included.
