Rare - Furnished 3P apartment in Beaulieu-sur-Mer in sumptuous Belle-Epoque villa, Mediterranean and Cap-Ferrat views.

Taste the charm of the Belle Epoque in this furnished 3P apartment of approx. 100m2, on the second floor of Villa Namouna, in the Petite Afrique district.

South-facing, the apartment offers exceptional views of the Mediterranean and Cap Ferrat. It comprises a 21m2 dining room opening onto a 10m2 sea-view terrace, a vast 31m2 living room with sea-view bacon, a large 22m2 independent bedroom, bathroom, fitted kitchen and storage room, with high ceilings. A parking space within the condominium completes this property.

Built in 1889, Villa Namouna is surrounded by an orange grove and Mediterranean gardens. It was once owned by James Gordon-Bennett, owner of the New York Herald, and François Coty, famous perfumer and creator of Chanel N°5.

Renowned for its elegance and charm, Beaulieu-sur-Mer offers a privileged setting just a few kilometers from Nice and Monaco.

The highly sought-after Petite Afrique district offers an exclusive, highly sought-after environment within easy reach of the beach, the port and its restaurants, and public transport.
