This contemporary apartment is located in the new coastal district of Mareterra – a unique setting where urban architecture blends seamlessly with the harmony of nature. It offers much more than just a residence; it is a living space where the calm of the sea aligns perfectly with the rhythm of Monaco.

Each room is bathed in soft light and opens onto the Mediterranean Sea. The interior stands out for its understated elegance, with natural materials, clean lines, and high-end finishes creating a warm and refined atmosphere. The kitchen, dining area, and living room flow into one another, forming a fluid, open, and functional layout.

Living in this apartment means experiencing rare comfort and true privilege. A spacious terrace, open views
