This exceptional apartment, located in the prestigious Mareterra neighborhood, boasts a large interior space opening onto several terraces with panoramic sea views, several bedrooms, and parking.

The new Mareterra neighborhood draws inspiration from two complementary elements, the sea and the land, which define this coastal extension project, formerly known as Portier Cove, is the environmentally friendly development shaping Monaco's Larvotto Bay.

The Mareterra project offers investors apartments, penthouses, townhouses with luxurious finishes, and a selection of rare waterfront villas. This largely pedestrianized neighborhood is complemented by shops, green spaces with a large, lush park, leisure areas, underground parking, and a port with a small marina.
