Treat yourself to the privilege of residing in Mareterra, Monaco's new emblematic district, born from a visionary project to extend it to the sea. Located between the Larvotto and the Grimaldi Forum, this unique place combines elegance, modernity and respect for the environment.

We offer an exclusive selection of apartments and villas available for sale and rent, offering magnificent views of the Mediterranean and bright living spaces with generous volumes. Each property benefits from a neat architecture, top-of-the-range comfort and exclusive services designed for a remarkable quality of life.

Residents enjoy an ultra-private setting and premium services: 24-hour security, concierge service, wellness areas, private parking, and direct access to an exceptional landscaped environment.

Mareterra embodies a new way of living Monaco, between innovation and the Mediterranean art of living.
