Located between Larvotto, the Carré d'Or and Port Hercule, Mareterra is Monaco's new eco-friendly district. Designed by world-renowned architects such as Renzo Piano and Valode & Pistre, this exceptional development offers luxurious residences in a uniquely landscaped setting, where the sea meets lush greenery.

At the heart of this remarkable environment, the Les Jardins d'Eau residence offers exclusive amenities: swimming pools, spa, fitness room, wine cellars, massage rooms and a high-end concierge service. Facing the Mediterranean, its apartments enjoy generous volumes and expansive terraces.

The apartments available in Les Jardins d'Eau rank among the most prestigious in Mareterra. From spacious 4/5-room residences exceeding 500 sqm to exceptional top-floor duplexes offering 3 to 5 bedrooms, each property features ultra-luxury finishes, noble materials, grand volumes and breathtaking panoramic sea views — true masterpieces of residential architecture.

This portfolio is offered exclusively off-market. All serious inquiries will be reviewed with the utmost discretion to provide a complete presentation file including photos, floorplans, and the organisation of private viewings.
