Located in the heart of the "Mareterra" district, also known as Anse du Portier, a new waterfront eco-district located in Monaco, between the Larvotto, the Carré d'Or and Port Hercules. "Mareterra" is a new set of residential, cultural and recreational spaces. Very exclusive with very few apartments available, this new district is made up of luxurious and modern architecture designed by a team of internationally renowned designers, architects and environmental experts, including Valode & Pistre and Renzo Piano.

The prestigious residence "le Renzo" owes its name to its renowned architect, Renzo Piano. This building benefits from access to luxurious facilities: swimming pools, fitness center, as well as spaces dedicated to well-being, such as hairdressing and massage salons. The apartment benefits from a private swimming pool and large terraces with different exposures to the Panoramic views.
