Nestled in a period building with a lift, this elegant four-room apartment enjoys a prime location, just steps from amenities, public transport, and the train station. With a surface area of approximately 130 m², it has undergone a complete renovation using high-quality materials, including magnificent herringbone parquet flooring that lends the whole a refined character. The living area is arranged around a light-filled double reception room, enhanced by a bay window and extended by an open-plan kitchen, fully fitted and thoughtfully appointed. The apartment offers two comfortable bedrooms: one opens onto a charming small balcony, while the other benefits from a private shower room with toilet. A second spacious shower room, also equipped with a toilet, completes this property with meticulously finished appointments.
