Located in the Jardin Exotique district, within the sought-after Eden Park residence, this completely renovated maid's room has a new kitchen.

The service room is equipped with a kitchenette immediately to the right at the entrance and a window on the wall overlooking the internal courtyard, allowing natural light to enter. On the left side there is a built-in wardrobe. The bathroom and shower are shared with the other service maids located on the same floor.

Available from October 1, 2026.
