This beautiful one-bedroom apartment enjoys a prime location and pleasant east-facing views over Port Hercule. Offering a total surface area of 64 m², the property is presented in excellent condition, having been tastefully renovated and elegantly furnished, making it ready for immediate occupation.

The apartment comprises an entrance hall leading to a bright and welcoming living room with an open-plan fully equipped kitchen. The well-proportioned bedroom, bathroom, and separate loo provide a practical and comfortable layout. A private terrace extends the living space and offers charming views over the port, creating the perfect setting to enjoy Monaco's atmosphere.

Benefiting from a highly sought-after location and a turnkey condition, this property represents an ideal pied-à-terre in the Principality as well as an attractive rental investment opportunity. A cellar is included with the apartment.
