Set on the second-to-top floor of a prestigious concierge building, this fully renovated and furnished apartment takes in sweeping views across the city, the mountains and the sea. Its dual east-west aspect draws light through the day, from sunrise until sunset.

The 20 m² terrace opens straight off the living room and works as a second reception space in the open air. Inside, the layout has been reconfigured in a contemporary spirit, with refined finishes and discreet built-in storage throughout.

Move-in ready from day one, it offers a rare balance of design, comfort and setting.
