This Bourgeois building from the beginning of the 20th Century reveals a very detailed architecture and is located on the main street of the Condamine neighborhood on the famous " Rue Grimaldi", named after the Monaco Princely Family. This area is the heart of the city with all its shops and restaurants, as well as major events such as the Grand Prix, the Monaco Yacht Show, the International Jumping and much more...

This spacious Bourgeois apartment enjoys high ceilings and excellent natural light thanks to large windows and amazing volumes, all of it in a very classical style. It comprises an entrance hall with a long corridor leading to the large double living room opening onto a balcony, two double bedrooms, a bathroom and a kitchen to the rear.
